

FREE Public Event

HIGHLIGHTS

- Red Tide Summit, hosted by Pinellas County and the City of Indian Rocks Beach
- 6 – 8:30 P.M.
Thursday, March 28
Sheraton Sand Key Resort
1160 Gulf Blvd.
Clearwater Beach
- Panelists:
 - Brittany Barbara, Reef Monitoring Inc.
 - Randy DeShazo, TBRPC
 - Dr. Kate Hubbard, FWC
 - Dr. Cynthia Johnson, Pinellas County
 - Dr. Barb Kirkpatrick, GCOOS
 - Kelli Hammer Levy, Pinellas County
 - Gregg Mims, Indian Rocks Beach
 - Dr. Richard Stumpf, NOAA
 - Dr. Robert Weisberg, USF
- Capacity: 350
- ★ Reservations required at:
- www.eventbrite.com/e/red-tide-summit-tickets-56190813235

Red Tide Summit

Hear from the Experts

Scientists, economists, planners to offer insights

On Thursday, March 28, Pinellas County and City of Indian Rocks Beach will host a Red Tide Summit at the Sheraton Sand Key Resort on Clearwater Beach. Moderated by Indian Rocks Beach Mayor Joanne "Cookie" Kennedy, the Summit will bring together the community and leading authorities on Red Tide to discuss the science, public health, management actions, economic impacts and what citizens can do to promote water quality.

Photo courtesy of Bryan Bennett

The latest technological advances

Learn about the latest technological advances and ongoing research including impacts to local reef systems, red tide monitoring, new tools including a cell phone microscope app called a HABscope, the use of satellite imagery and forecast modeling, the experimental red tide respiratory forecast tool, and tools used to help manage the impacts locally.

Sheraton
SAND KEY RESORT

