March ONE BAY Webinar

TBRPC will host a ONE Bay webinar on Friday, March 11th, 2022. The March ONE Bay Resilient Communities event will be an online webinar focused on the growing interest in the Tampa Bay region on sustainable food systems. This session will feature three speakers who will share resources for local government staff looking to integrate food systems into policies and regulations. Planners will learn some of the regulatory barriers farmers have identified in their operations and will be able to begin to identify opportunities for adapting policies and regulations to facilitate sustainable food systems.

This event has been approved for 1.5 CM, with 1 CM for Sustainability & Resilience
